FIRST DEACONS FROM B.L.S. ORDAINED

On Saturday, March 25, in ordination ceremonies at Epiphany Church, the first deacons were elevated for the Church of Pittsburgh from the ranks of the Latin School Alumni. The members of the Class of '65 receiving Diaconate were: PAUL J. SCHRATZ of St. Mary Seminary and University, Baltimore, Maryland; WALTER DAVID SCHORR of St. Francis Seminary, Loretto, Pa.; JOHN P. SWEENEY of St. Vincent Seminary, Latrobe, Pa., and ROBERT OBRINGER of Mt. St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland. All had attended Duquesne University and St. Paul Seminary. They are part of a class of twenty-seven deacons who will be ordained to the Priesthood in May of 1973. WILLIAM GLUNK and VINCENT MARINO, also of the Latin School Class of '65, will be ordained deacons in the near future at North American College in Rome.

ALUMNI DEVELOPMENTS

Class of '66:

SGT. ROBERT J. KUHN has concluded his military service with the Army of the Republic. Returning from Cam Rahn Bay in late January, he completed ten months in Vietnamese soil. Mr. Bob plans to travel a bit this summer before entering graduate school this coming fall.

STAN JANIAK was ordained a cleric (minor orders) in mid-March at St. Meinrad Seminary. While home on vacation, he still showed a heavy leaning toward the bottomless cup at B&G's. Stan is now at Indiana U. studying for his Master's Degree in Religion.

TERRY CRONIN has married in the recent half-year. He and his bride reside in Uptown Pittsburgh while she completes studies at Duquesne University.

Class of '68

TOM MYRON was recently elected President of his business fraternity at St. Francis College in Loretto.

JOE SCHEIB obtained his B.A. Degree from Duquesne last semester. He is now on leave from the seminary, planning to resume studies at a theoligate this coming fall.

Class of '70

Marriage plans are in the air for MIKE MALONE, currently studying at Duquesne. A date has not yet been set for the Sophomore English major.

RALPH STERZINGER, majoring in Architecture at Penn State, resides at the University Park Campus. He has a 3.28 QPA in his Sophomore year.

Class of '71:

ROY RIEDER, who entered the service after graduation, is now stationed in Washington, D.C. He will marry Patricia Ecroyd on June 3 in St. Mary of Mercy Church, Pittsburgh.

Last summer MIKE WALLISH entertained a French pen-pal at his home. This year Mike and his sister will visit their friend in France while at the same time studying the language.

FOR YOUR FUTURE REFERENCE:

On June 3 in Baltimore, MILTON J. JORDAN, S.J. and GEORGE W. BUR, S.J. will be ordained to the Priesthood. Both were members of the Latin School faculty as scholastics. Both hope to return to B.L.S. to celebrate Mass at the school sometime during the summer. More details will be available in the next issue of By-LineS.

Also watch for more details on the upcoming annual re-union to be held during the summer. Details are now being worked out by the Alumni Board of Governors.
