Summer 1972

A FEW '72 COLLEGE GRADUATES FROM THE CLASS OF '68

TOM MYRON graduated from St. Francis College in Loretto, Pa. with a major in accounting. Awarded his B.S. degree Magna Cum Laude, he was also a member of "Who's Who" among students in American Universities and Colleges, Delta Epsilon Sigma, (the National Catholic Honor Fraternity), Alpha Kappa Psi business fraternity, and Delta Sigma Phi fraternity. He is now employed as a staff accountant for Lybrand, Ross Brothers and Montgomery.

BOB MILTENBERGER received a degree in Physics, Cum Laude, after attending Duquesne University for four years. There he belonged to the Society of Physics Students' and was active in the Third Alternative movement. Entering Pitt in the fall, he will seek an M.A. in Radiological Hygiene.

KEN McNULTY was graduated from Clarion State with a B.S. in Library Science. He was a biographer of the National Student Register of 1971-72 and was involved in various activities of student government. He is currently involved in his fifth summer of EDP traineeship at Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania and works full time as a tape librarian. He plans to go on for a Masters Degree.

FRANK DRABISKA, RAY RHODEN, JOSEPH SCHIEB AND BRIAN KEANE graduated from Duquesne University after four years in the seminary program of study at St. Paul Seminary in Crafton. BRIAN graduated Magna Cum Laude and was awarded the Praestantia Linguarum Classicarum gold medal. An appointed member of Phi Sigma Iota, the National Romance Language Honor Society, he was also enrolled in the list of "Who's Who among students in American Universities and Colleges." He will attend St. Vincent Seminary in Latrobe, Pa., along with RAY RHODEN, beginning in September. FRANK will study at St. Francis Seminary in Loretto, while JOE is set for St. Meinrad in Indiana.

BOB LIZIK and JOHN MARKIEWICZ also received degrees from Duquesne.

BOB DEESKI majored in Biochemistry and received his diploma from Pitt in April. He married in 1970 and he, his wife and son, Christopher, reside in Oakland. He is currently working as a hospital lab technician before taking up studies at the Temple University School of Medicine in September.

OTHER ALUMNI DEVELOPMENTS

Class of '66:

TERRY FEDIGAN, the wiley wanderer of the continent, has come back to the States for the summer. He has been busy conveying his humorous comments around the Pittsburgh area.

NICK CAFARDI moves on; finishing Duquesne with an M.A. in Philosophy.

This summer he will set out after the tracks of BILL STEIDLE by entering Pitt's Law School

Class of '67:

DAN DINARDO leaves Pittsburgh to reclaim his ancestral Italian homeland on August 30. He will be viewing the ruins between theological studies at North American College and Gregorian University in Rome. Dan recently completed work on his M.A. thesis in Philosophy at Catholic University of America.

Class of '69:

MARTY HARRIS spent the past ten months participating in a Junior Year abroad Program sponsored by the Regional Council for International Education. He attended a program in Basel, Switzerland, which offered course work in the social science areas with particular emphasis on history and political science.

LARRY SCHOLL recently took vows in the Jesuit order in ceremonies held at the novitiate in Wernersville, Pa.

SUMMER REUNION CANCELLED

Unfortunately, due to the impossibility of obtaining a suitable picnic site during the month of August, the proposed summer re-union plans had to be scrapped. However, a get-together is planned for the B. L. S. alumni in conjunction with the 1972 Ice Capades performance. Arrangements have been made for a block of seats to be reserved for the 6 P.M. evening show on Sunday, September 24th. On that night five dollar priced seats may be obtained for four dollars by members of the alumni association. This is provided that at least twenty five ticket reservations are made. It is, therefore important that you make plans now to be on hand for this discount performance and a chance to see some of the guys. Please detach and fill out the form below. Mail it, along with your check or money order (payable to the Bishop's Latin School Alumni Association) to:-
